Driving School!!! 'Nough said!. Weirdly compelling fun for a while, and there's certainly something nice and different about an RTS where you're not trying to blow stuff up. I like the level of detail involved but there's just too much multitasking to really appreciate it. The absence of being able to pause to give orders makes it worse, hobbling the player's ability to play strategically (chopping down trees to slow down a forest fire for instance, instead of just spamming water tenders). Those with the reaction speed for this game will find it disappointing and those without will find it frustrating.. This is a great series of island for VFR flight! They are very close together meaning you can do extremely short flights and the small unlit airstrips make for fun landings. Maybe not the best airstrips for new pilots due to that fact though.

The fact that they are just off the coast Germany and The Netherlands puts them extremely close to very major airports that you can pick up nice payware for too.

The scenery itself is also very pleasing... The buildings are high quality and the grass around the airstrips polishes it off for me!

If you want some pretty, yet testing airstrips this is great for you and the location couldn't be better!

Rating: 8/10. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2SB_D-rMsYM. These are obviously Honey Badgers cuz they don't give a..."Shut yo mouth", but i'm only talkin' about Gravity Badgers!. This is a glitchy game. you can poop in walls so that the other player can't get to it. You also get caught in the mopping animation and just t-pose slide your way through the maps. Fun concept but this is a bad game. That and it crashes after each game.. It's all fun and games until my beloved nephew clicked on the New Game button.

There's no "Are you sure you want to start a new game?", the game just deletes your whole progress.

"Just bad luck" I thought, then the second time I accidentally clicked on the New Game button.

Just imagine you got to level 80 and then have to start again from level 1, you'll know how I felt.

2 days ago I would recommend this game but now, \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 no, stay so so so far away from it, please.. Truly the best game on steam. Come play this game about love and loss, and carrots. This game is perfect, it cured my cancer and was the first game I've ever played to make me cry. Buy this game if you want to experience true happiness.. TL;DR: Buggy but still playable. Randomly generated plants are fun to look at, especially the trees. Graphics are beautiful. Audio's kinda bad -- repetitive soundtrack, very few sound effects, but it doesn't take away from the enjoyment. Overall it's a pleasant experience that you can only get here.

Getting more in-depth, there're a couple things to know if you want to enjoy this game.

First, there's a trash-bin to your left. Use that to get rid of the pot currently on your desk, or throw away seeds that you don't particularly like. Note that doing that second thing makes the seed count glitch out, and you'll end up opening a brand new seed packet to find anywhere from one to four seeds inside. It's still kinda worth it, because otherwise your seed drawer fills up with junk.

Second, you can't edit or delete entries in your seed journal (from what I can tell), so only record ones you actually care about, and make sure it's accurate before you send it in. Also, you might encounter a glitch where you enter the seed journal to find an entry already open, right-click out of it, and discover your cursor is stuck in the middle of the screen. Just back out, go back in, close the entry, and this time it'll work. Having to do that every time does get old, though...

Third, you can rotate the circular thingy on your desk if you want to get a better look at your current plant, and you can put multiple plants in certain pots. Using planters to try out your five newest seeds at once is recommended.

Lastly, there's a bug where, if you try to grab a new pot when one is already on your desk, you'll get stuck halfway between the pot shelf and your desk, and you'll have to exit to the menu and start the day over. That one kinda sucks, so watch out.

The rest of the issues are kinda minor. A few typos, a noticeable lack of sound effects, disappointing randomly generated plants, an overabundance of sameface succulents, the depressing sense that the main character has no friends and never ventures outside... but it's really more good than bad. You get to settle into a comfortable routine of discovering new plants, filing them away in your notebook, fulfilling requests, and acquiring new pots. You get to experience the frustration of just starting out, the pang of rejection, and the satisfaction of a job well done. Eventually, you're putting together genuinely beautiful arrangements using your best finds and your shiniest pots, and that feels pretty good. And the trees actually look amazing; they're my favorite part of the game.

So if that sounds like a good time to you, and you don't mind the price, I very much recommend this game.

An incredibly surreal and odd experience. I'm just glad that things like it get made.. Pros:
You can look around some of the enviroments.

Cons:

Horrible Vive controls

Movement system guarenteed to make you sick or feel off balance.. Haven't play much of this game yet, but other than Brookhaven Experiment it's the first game to make me jump from fear. The dev is really active on Reddit and seems to be doing his best to address any and all concerns.

From the little time that I did play, I throughly enjoyed the system of writing runes with one hand and having your staff execute it. Overall I think that Left-Hand Path has a ton of potential and I will be following it closely to see what it becomes.. Gameplay Really good. It's pretty good.. Does not include all DLC. better than csgo
